

UX CASE STUDY

Analyzing User Experience of Zomato Food Delivery Application

Prepared By:

M.Vinitha

Course / Department:

B.Tech Information Technology

Date:

July 2026

UX Case Study: Zomato Food Delivery Application

UX Case Study of Zomato

1. Introduction

Zomato is one of the most popular food delivery and restaurant discovery applications. It allows users to search restaurants, explore menus, order food online, make payments, and track deliveries.

This UX case study focuses on understanding the user journey of Zomato, identifying its strengths and weaknesses, and suggesting improvements to create a better user experience.

2. Objective of the Study

The objectives of this UX case study are:

- To analyze the user interaction flow of Zomato.
- To identify positive and negative aspects of the application.
- To suggest design improvements for better usability.
- To create sample UI improvements using wireframes.

3. About the Application

Application Name: Zomato

Category: Food Delivery Application

Main Features:

- Restaurant search
- Food ordering
- Online payment
- Order tracking
- Restaurant reviews and ratings
- Offers and discounts

4. User Journey Map

User Goal:

Order food from a nearby restaurant.

User Flow:

Open Zomato App

↓

Login / Signup

↓

Search for Restaurant or Food

↓

Select Restaurant

↓

Choose Food Items

↓

Add Items to Cart

↓

Make Payment

↓

Track Order

↓

Receive Food

User Journey Details:

Stage	User Action	User Experience
Open App	User opens Zomato	Quick access to restaurants
Search	User searches food/restaurants	Easy search functionality
Selection	User checks menu and reviews	Helps decision making

Cart	User reviews order	Simple order management
Payment	User completes payment	Multiple payment options
Tracking	User monitors delivery	Real-time updates

User Needs:

- Fast food discovery
- Simple ordering process
- Transparent pricing
- Quick delivery updates

5. UX Strengths of Zomato

1. Easy Navigation

The application provides a simple navigation system that helps users quickly find restaurants and food items.

2. Large Restaurant Database

Users can access many restaurants with different cuisines and options.

3. Search and Filter Options

Users can filter restaurants based on:

- Rating
- Price
- Distance
- Cuisine type

4. Order Tracking

Live order tracking improves user confidence and reduces uncertainty.

5. Multiple Payment Options

Users can choose different payment methods according to their convenience.

6. UX Weaknesses of Zomato

1. Crowded Home Screen

The home page contains many banners, offers, and categories which may confuse users.

2. Too Many Notifications

Frequent promotional notifications can affect user experience.

3. Checkout Complexity

Users may find additional charges and options confusing during checkout.

4. Delivery Issues

Sometimes delays can reduce customer satisfaction.

7. Suggested Improvements

Improvement 1: Clean Home Screen Design

Problem:

The current home screen contains too many sections.

Solution:

Create a minimal dashboard with important features only.

Benefits:

- Faster food discovery
- Less confusion
- Better user focus

Improvement 2: Simplified Checkout Process

Problem:

Checkout contains multiple steps.

Solution:

Create a single-page checkout with:

- Order summary
- Delivery details
- Payment button

Benefits:

- Faster payment
- Reduced user effort

Improvement 3: Personalized Food Recommendation

Problem:

Users spend time deciding what to order.

Solution:

Add AI-based recommendations based on:

- Previous orders
- Food preferences
- Location

Benefits:

- Faster decisions
- Personalized experience

8. Conclusion

Zomato provides a convenient food ordering experience with useful features like restaurant discovery, online ordering, and live tracking.

However, improving the simplicity of the interface, reducing unnecessary information, and adding personalized recommendations can make the application more user-friendly.

A better UX design will help users complete their food ordering journey faster and with less confusion.

Frame 1: Improved Login Screen

Frame 2: Improved Home Screen

Frame 3: Improved Restaurant Screen

Frame 4: Improved Food Screen

Frame 5: Improved Cart Screen

Cart

Item 1 - $100

Item 2 - $150

Total: $250

Delivery: $20

 Checkout

